Reports and Resources

The Office of Decision Support prepares a wide variety of static reports and interactive, dynamic reports and dashboards for use in university planning and decision-making.

These reports encompass a variety of subject areas, which you may explore on the menu to the left. The office also provides limited support for ad hoc reports.

Should you have questions around finding information to meet your needs, please contact us for additional assistance.

Password-Protected Reports

- Contain sensitive and FERPA-protected aggregate data
 - Race-Ethnicity
 - Faculty
- To access these data, you need to:
 - Be an active UNLV employee
 - Request an ODS Web Account password (transitioning to ACE)
- Students, including graduate assistants, cannot be granted access to the password-protected reports and these data cannot be used for research projects without IRB approval.

Risk Factors for Retention

- Notes:
 - 1. Includes degree- and certificate-seeking undergraduate students enrolled in the given term as of the date indicated.
 - 2. Excludes Singapore and post-baccalaureate students.
 - 3. Students majoring in more than one college are included in totals for each college. Grand totals reflect unduplicated counts.
 - 4. Students who have not yet declared a major (i.e., 'Exploring') are categorized under 'University of Nevada Las Vegas'.

UNLV Analytics Ad Hoc Reporting Tool

- Enables you to create your own custom Admissions, Enrollment and Degrees-Conferred reports
- Requesting access similar to dashboards
- Requires an explanation of how you intend to use UNLV Analytics because it contains record-level data
- Three-hour trainings are available through the office

Data Requests

- Some limited capacity to provide support for accreditation and grant applications when needed
- Two weeks lead time for requests
- When to go through the Registrar's Office:
 - Record-level data requests
 - When student contact information is needed
